Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders

Interdisciplinary perspectives

Edited by Barry Carpenter, Carolyn Blackburn and Jo Egerton

Articulating fundamental knowledge, cutting edge initiatives and emerging trends in FASDs, this book provides an evidence base that will enable services to identify and respond to the need for action on FASDs. It recognises that families – natural, foster or adoptive – are at the heart of this process, and that their rich knowledge base, grounded in their lived experience, is crucial.

Effective Teaching and Learning for Pupils with Learning Difficulties, 3rd Edition

Edited by Barry Carpenter, Rob Ashdown and Keith Bovair

Along with a new appraisal of the contents from the editors, the contributors raise debates, illustrate effective teaching ideas and discuss strategies for providing a high-quality education for these pupils and a celebration of their achievements. The book also discusses the active involvement of family members and the learners themselves in these processes and considers issues surrounding empowerment of learners, professional development of the workforce and curriculum principles such as differentiation, personalisation, and engagement.
